THE IMPORTANCE OF SELF-CARE

“Balancing motherhood and work can often leave me feeling there is little time left for my own needs. However, my career as a physical therapist has helped me understand the importance of self-care.”
- Mari Hillary, DPT

TREATING THE WHOLE PATIENT

“At Hulst Jepsen Physical Therapy, we collaborate with your other providers to discuss your full health history to ensure we do not overlook potential solutions to your pain.”
- Kellee Donovan, Director of Sales
